Reminders

Host Chapter Beta’s charity is a shelter in the Portland area for women and their children who are fleeing domestic violence situations. Please support them by bringing new or used, pristine (with absolutely no markings) books and magazines suitable for children and adults. The books can be both fiction and nonfiction on any topic. Children’s books can cover the span from infancy to young adult.

Chapter Presidents, please remember to bring a check made out to M.S.O. in an envelope labeled Scholarship March for the birthday Luncheon.

Remember your chapter’s basket for the World Fellowship raffle.
