Brenna Thornton

Happenings in the lives of our Alpha Sisters:

Hilda Wardwell: Fawn and I spoke with Hilda to see how she was doing down in FL. She said, she was doing great. She is playing golf twice a week, doing water aerobics T-W-F, and playing card games once a week with 5 others.

Her address in FL is:
12300 Vonn Rd.
Apartment 5207
Largo, FL 33774

 Peggy Swett: We spoke to Peggy and she said she had to wait until January to hear about the results of her procedure. Peggy also wanted to Thank you for the cards, prayers and well wishes.

Anna Bragg: She calls this HER COVID Shawl. Which is her own design and is totally made of “stash” yarn which is leftovers from previous projects.

Brenna Thornton: She is now in room 202 in the Williams Rehab Unit of Ross Manor. We tried calling and spoke with the nurses station, the nurse said Brenna was in her room, the phone rang and Brenna didn't pick up.

Finalist, John N. Cole Award for Maine-themed Nonfiction, 2013 Maine Literary Award Retired Maine Game Warden John Ford has seen it all. He's been shot at by desperate prison escapees, been outwitted by wily trappers, and rescued scores of animals. As a tenacious and successful warden, he was always willing to spend the time needed to nab violators of the state's fish and game laws. At the same time, though, he wasn't a cold, heartless, go-by-the-book enforcer; he usually had a good quip ready when he slipped the handcuffs on a violator, and he wasn't above accepting a lesson learned as sufficient penalty for breaking the law. Ford is also a very gifted storyteller and he writes of his adventures in Suddenly, the Cider Didn't Taste So Good, a collection of true tales, both humorous and serious, from the trenches of law enforcement, and also includes heartwarming accounts of his rescue of hurt or abandoned animals.

Silver Ships

By: Theresa Druley Black

To A Friend

I have many gifts

About me: the trees,

The tiniest Flowers,

The ships on the seas,

The blue of the skies,

The splash of the rain,

With Deep flowing valleys,

Near great fields of grain.

God gave me great pleasures,

Joys without end;

And best of all treasures,
